Letter of Nominees to former council seat James Bertino received from Richard Curcio 2/7/11

The Solicitor advised on the legal procedure for appointing to a vacant municipal council seat.

A discussion was held concerning the letter from Richard Curcio, Republican Municipal Committee Chair, nominating Michael Torrissi, Anni Carpo and Ralph Morano to fill vacant council seat with all of council agreeing that it would be in the best interest for the Republican Municipal Committee to choose the individual to fill the vacant seat.

It was also noted by the Solicitor and Municipal Clerk that Mr. Ralph Morano telephoned the Clerk on 2/7/11 at 3:00 p.m. to verbally request his name be removed from the letter of nominees submitted by Mr. Richard Curcio. The Clerk advised Mr. Morano that she could not take a verbal request and that he should submit a letter to her with his request or have Mr. Richard Curcio submit the letter. Mr. Morano did not wish to submit a letter nor telephone Mr. Curcio to request same.

Solicitor concluded per law that all three nominees submitted in writing remain the nominees until a subsequent letter retracting Ralph Morano is submitted.

No action taken by Mayor and Council to appoint to vacant seat of former Councilman James Bertino.

The Clerk was directed to forward a letter to Mr. Richard Curcio, Republican Municipal Committee Chair, advising that no action was taken by Mayor and Council to fill the vacant seat of former Councilman James Bertino.

PUBLIC HEARD

Larry Delaney – Broadway

Mr. Delaney, referring to a newspaper article, brought to council's attention that the state is looking for a hospital to designate for Veterans and will make a decision on location of same within one year. He suggested that now is the time to inquire as to former Kessler Hospital being used for this purpose as Atlanticare will be moving out of the hospital once their new building is completed.

Councilman Gribbin advised that he will write a letter to necessary officials and asked Freeholder Bertino, who was seated in the audience, if he would be able to help the Town in this regard?

Freeholder Bertino advised that he would be interested in helping Hammonton acquire a veteran based hospital at former Kessler Hospital location.

MEETING ADJOURNED

Motion by Councilperson Gribbin, seconded by Councilperson Esposito, the meeting be adjourned.
Motion carried.

April Boyer Maimone, Municipal Clerk
